Dear Prestige Brickwork,

You may recall giving a cheque for £100 last term to our school. In my letter of thanks to you I explained that I would use the money to buy something rather special for our new school building.

Overall six contractors involved in building our new school donated cheques that totalled £1,000. After much deliberation we have decided to buy two story telling chairs that will be for our outside area. These large chairs are used for role play, drama and of course for story telling! We intend to have a plaque made with your name on to ensure we remember your generosity.

Yours sincerely,
